

Writing - Session 1

Learning Outcome: I can punctuate direct speech accurately.

Read the passage below. Can you mark and correct all of the errors in the passage? Look at the presentation to remind you of the rules of dialogue.

"I bet I can beat you to the water" shouted Stella kicking off her shoes and sprinting towards the crashing waves of the Atlantic Ocean.

"I'll easily win, replied James as he flicked off his new trainers. The two children raced towards the water's edge. Suddenly, Stella stopped.

What's wrong? called James. "look at this," said Stella holding up a gold, circular disc to the light.

"What is it" asked James peering over his sister's shoulder.

"It looks like a coin but it has strange writing on it"

"It must be treasure," Laughed James trying to snatch the coin from his sister's hand.