

Answer this question:

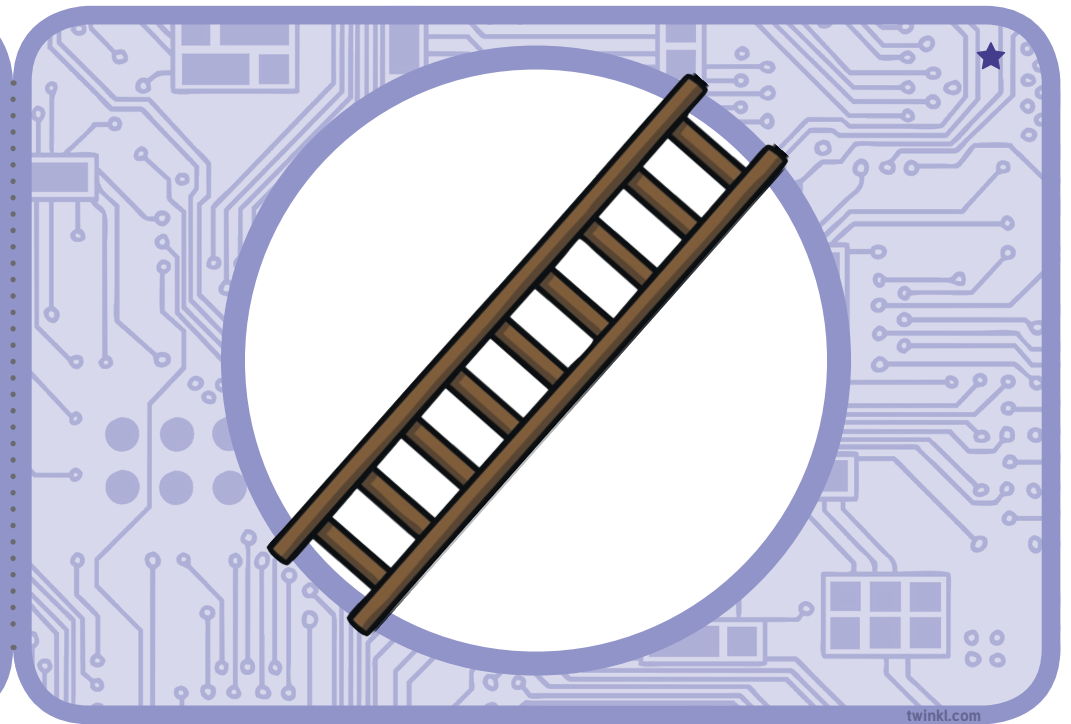

My parents will never know what sites I've accessed online if I don't tell them. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

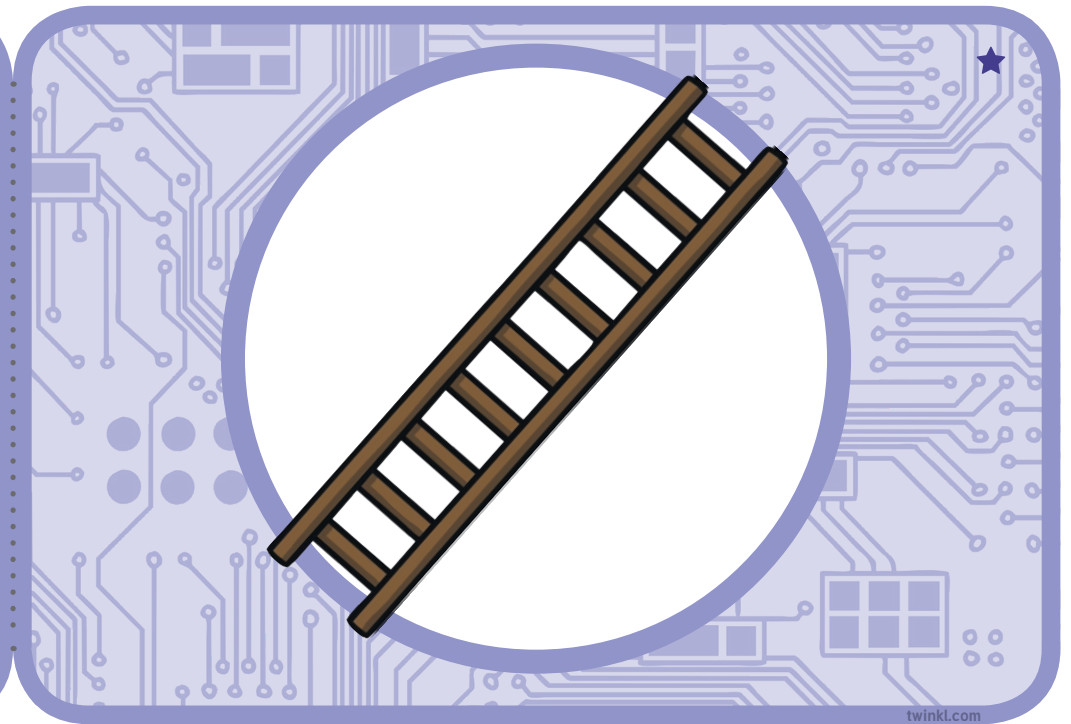

List three things you might leave behind in your digital footprint.

Answers: Name, address, interests, hobbies, places you've been, birthday, friends' or parents' names... anything you do online!

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

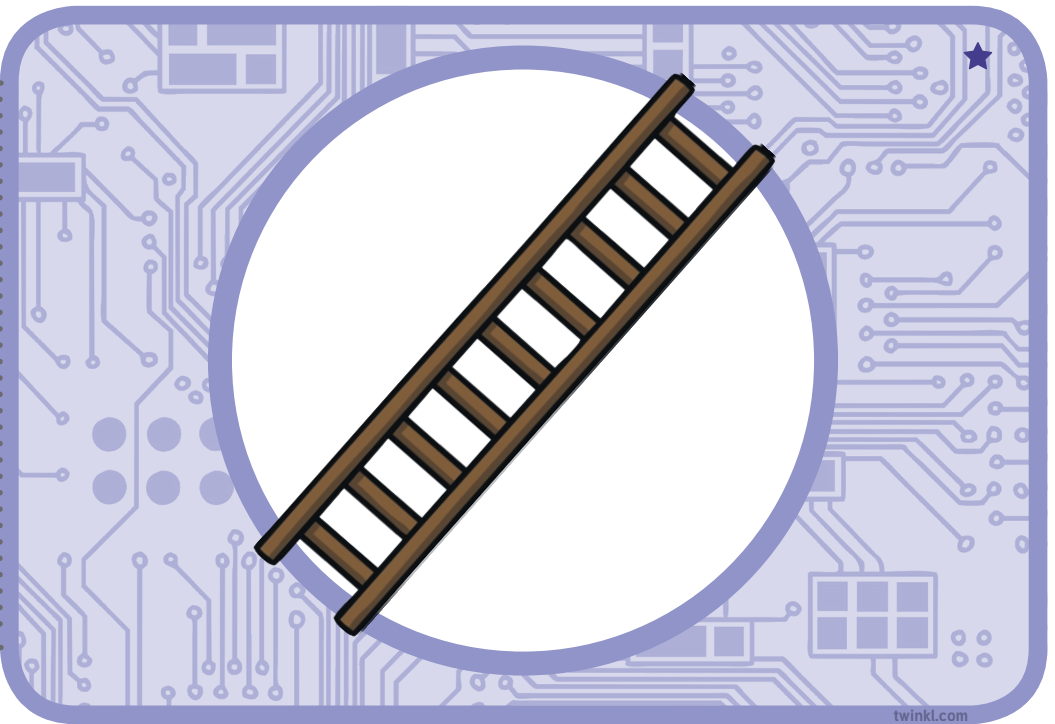

Only websites make up my digital footprint, games consoles and apps don't count. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

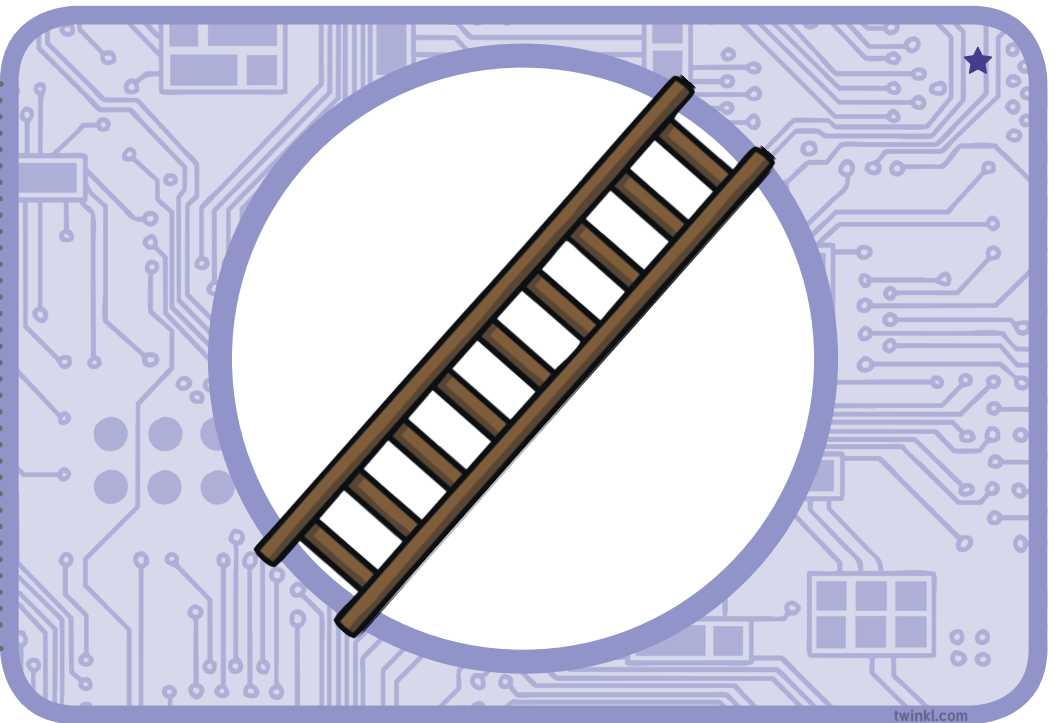

The more words I include in an online search, the better the results will be. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

What is a search engine?

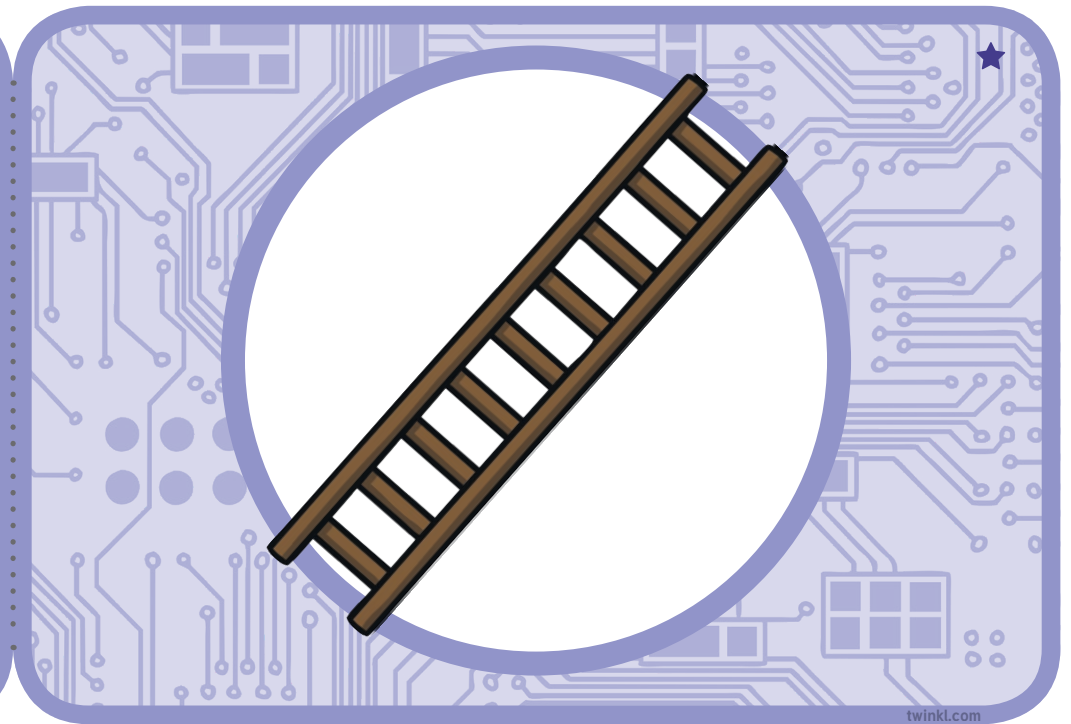

- a) A website about cars and trains
- b) A type of robot that will find things for me that I've lost
- c) A website where I can type in what I'm looking for online

Answer: C

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

What clues might there be that a website is designed for children to use?

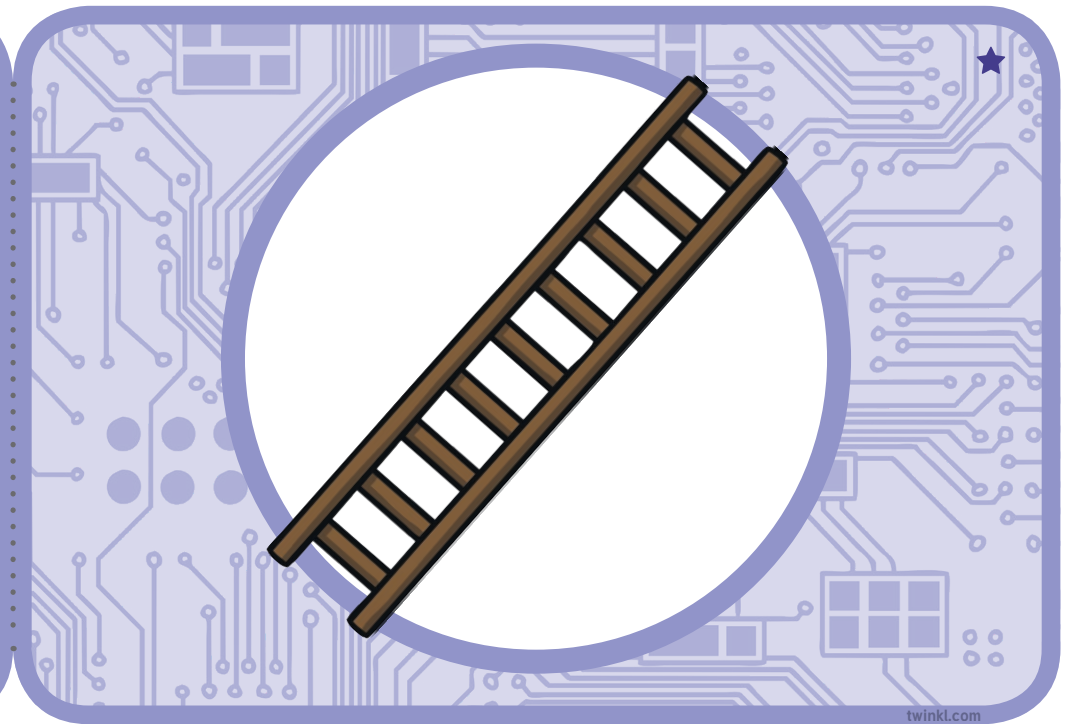

- a) Easy to understand and lots of pictures
- b) Needing to sign in or make an account
- c) Tricky words and diagrams

Answer: A

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

Who should make an online profile or account for you?

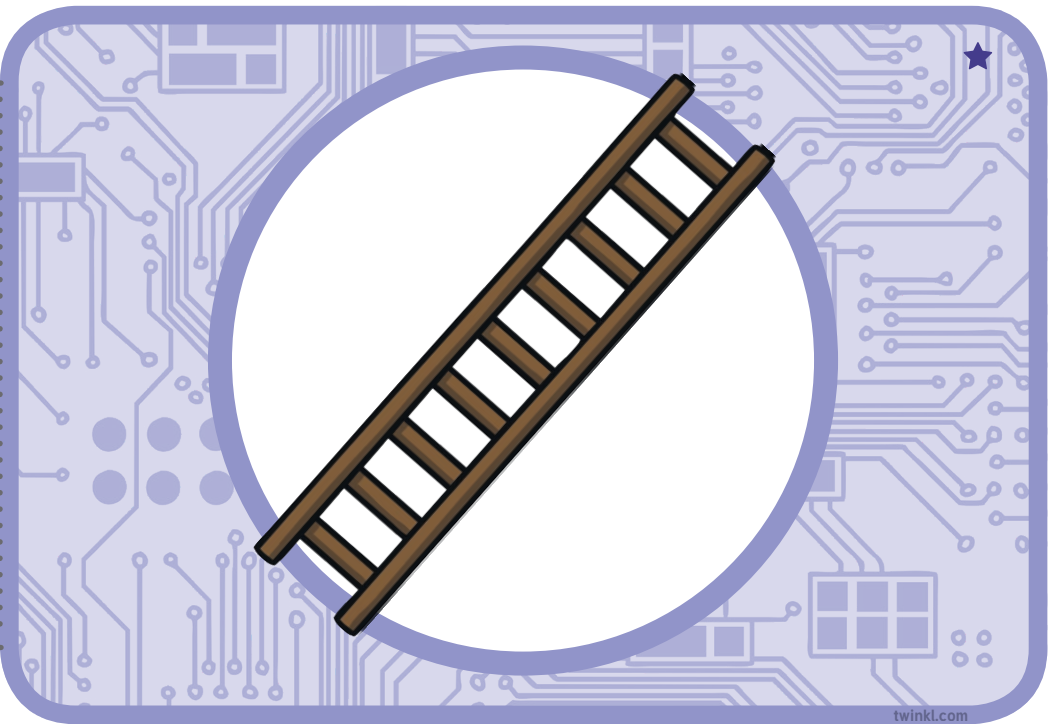

- A) Me
- B) Me and an adult
- C) An adult

Answer: B

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

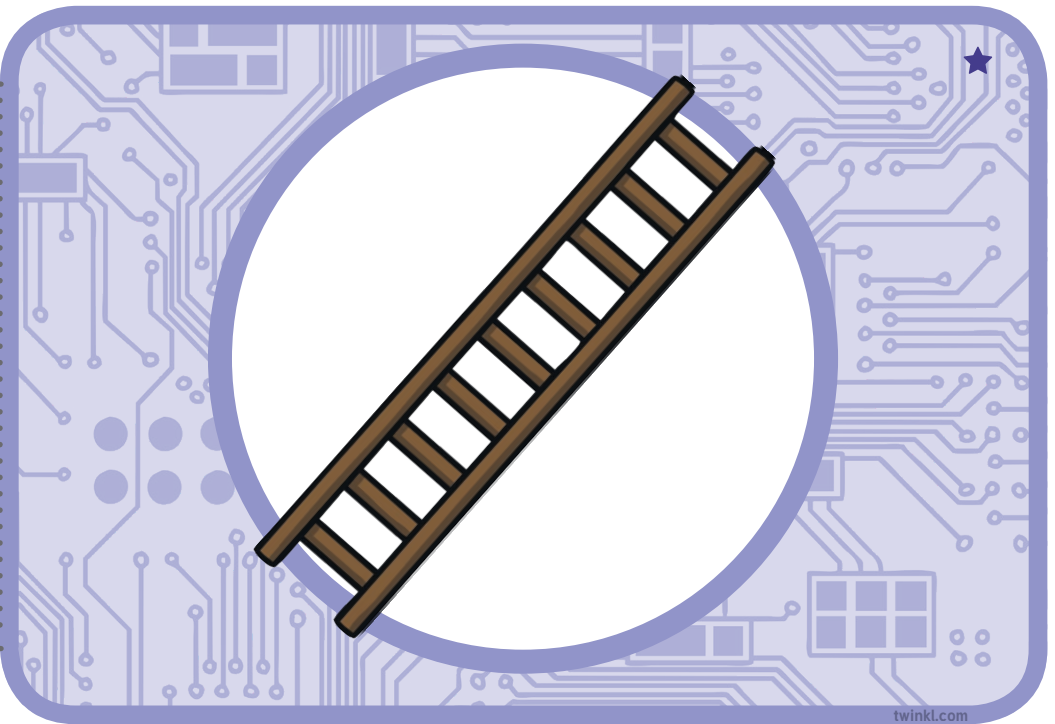

Why should you tell a grown-up if something makes you uncomfortable online?

- a) So they can report it
- b) So they can make you feel better about it
- c) So that they can block it from showing again

Answer: All of them!

Go up the ladder, they're all correct!

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

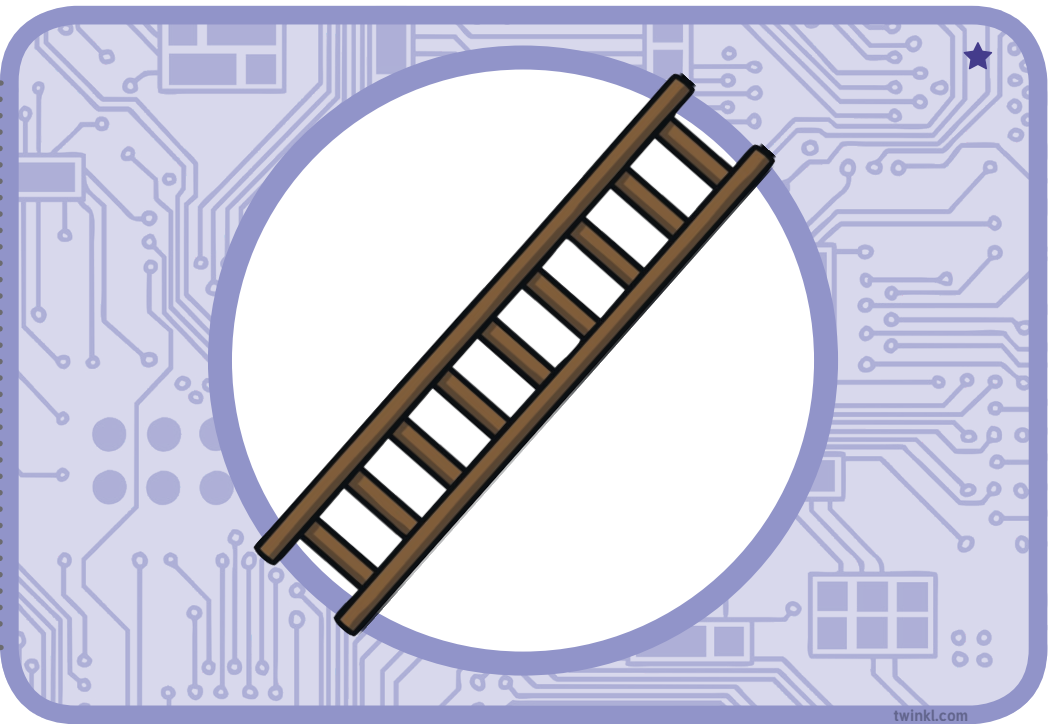

Blocking somebody is all you need to do if they send you an unkind message. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

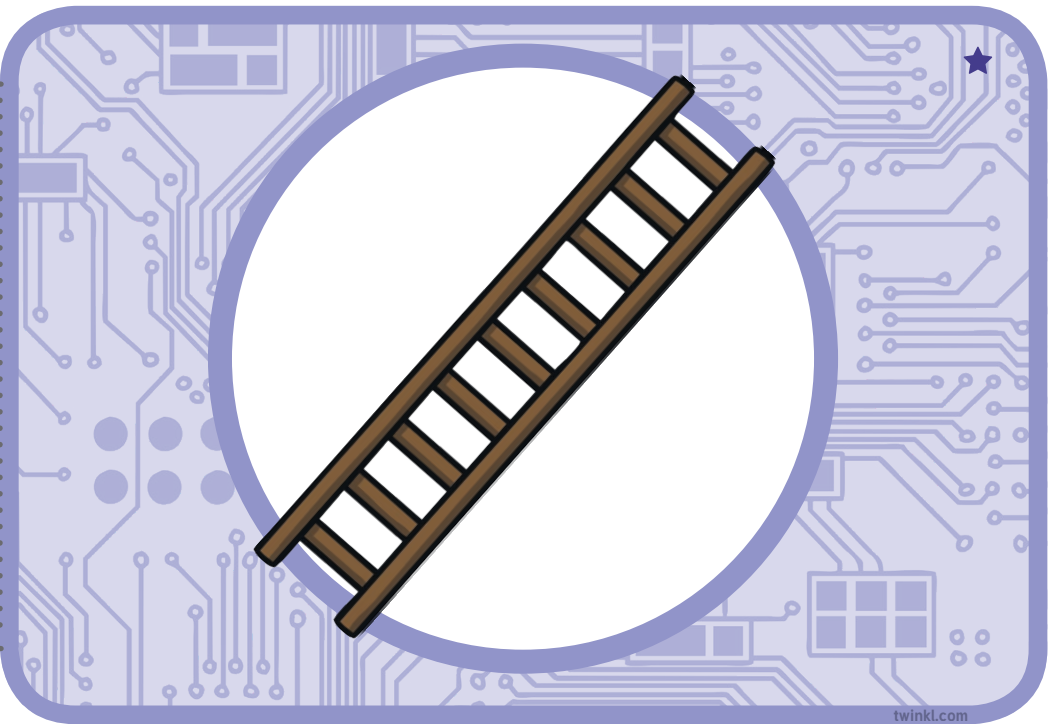

It is always easy to tell if someone is being unkind online on purpose. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

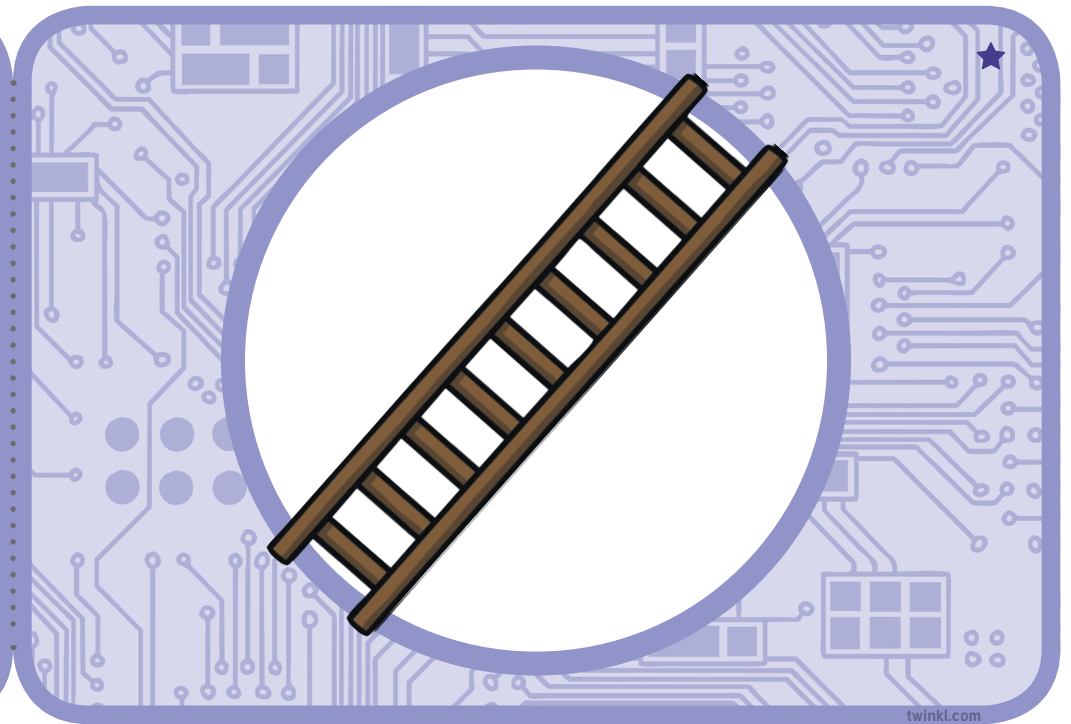

It is safe to access any website that doesn't need me to log in. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

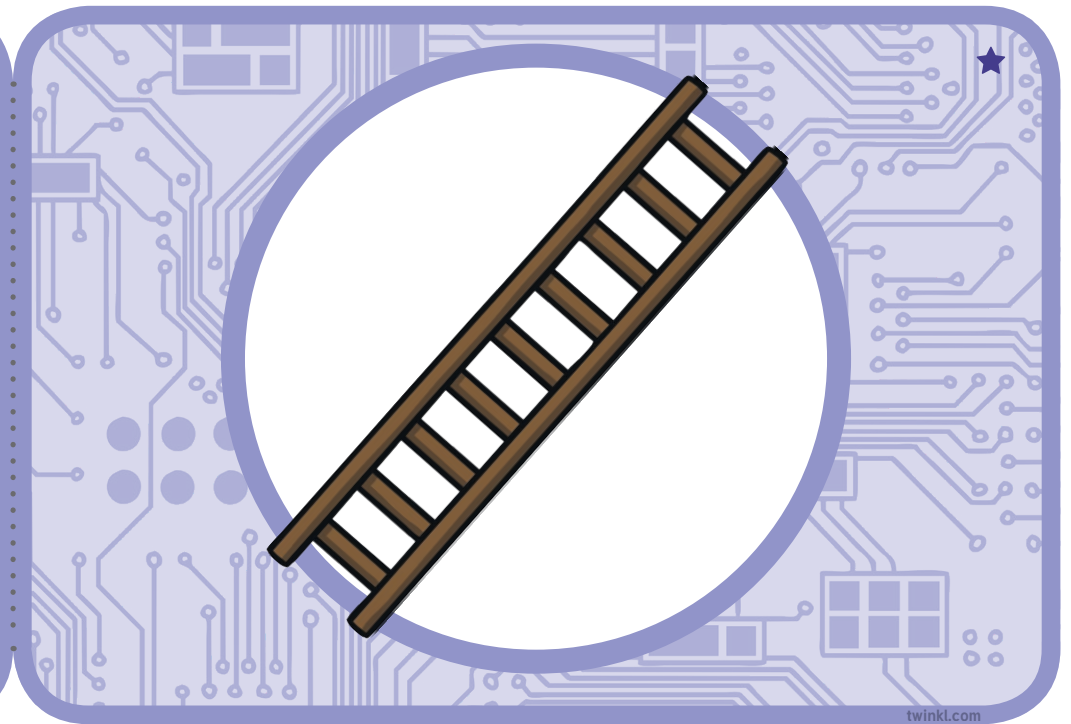

Your older friend has told you that you can go on a website; you don't need to ask an adult because she checked it for you. True or false?

Answer: False

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

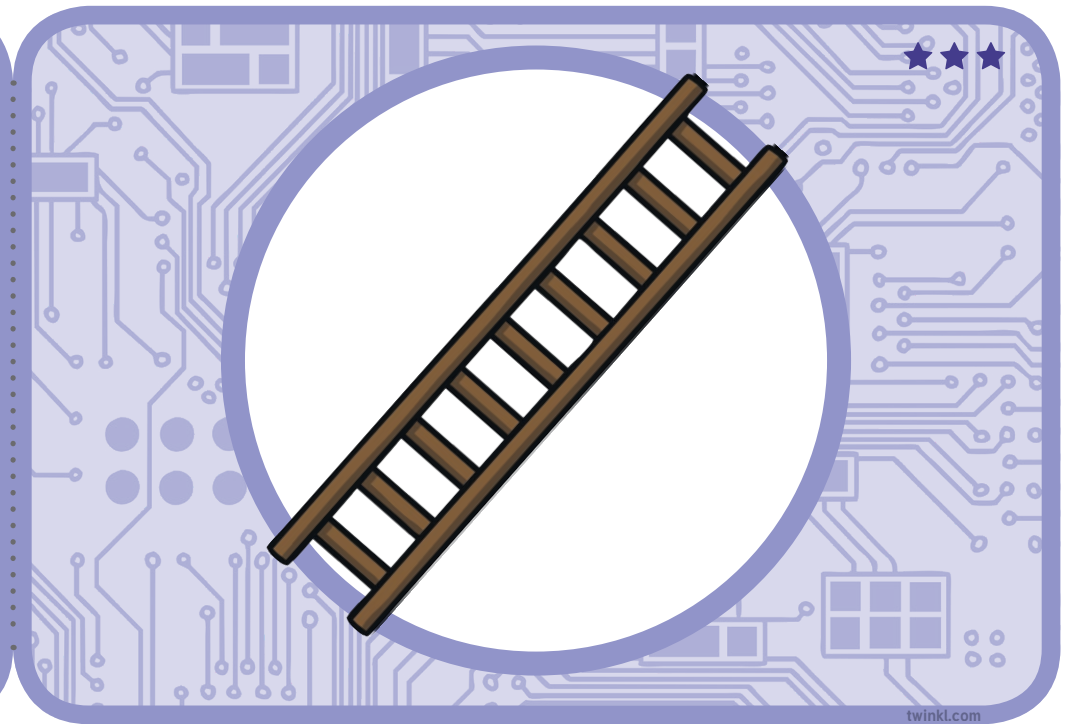

You've been allowed online at home for an hour. Name a way that your parents will be able to see what you have been on.

Answer: Adverts that pop up after, Internet history, saved websites, etc.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

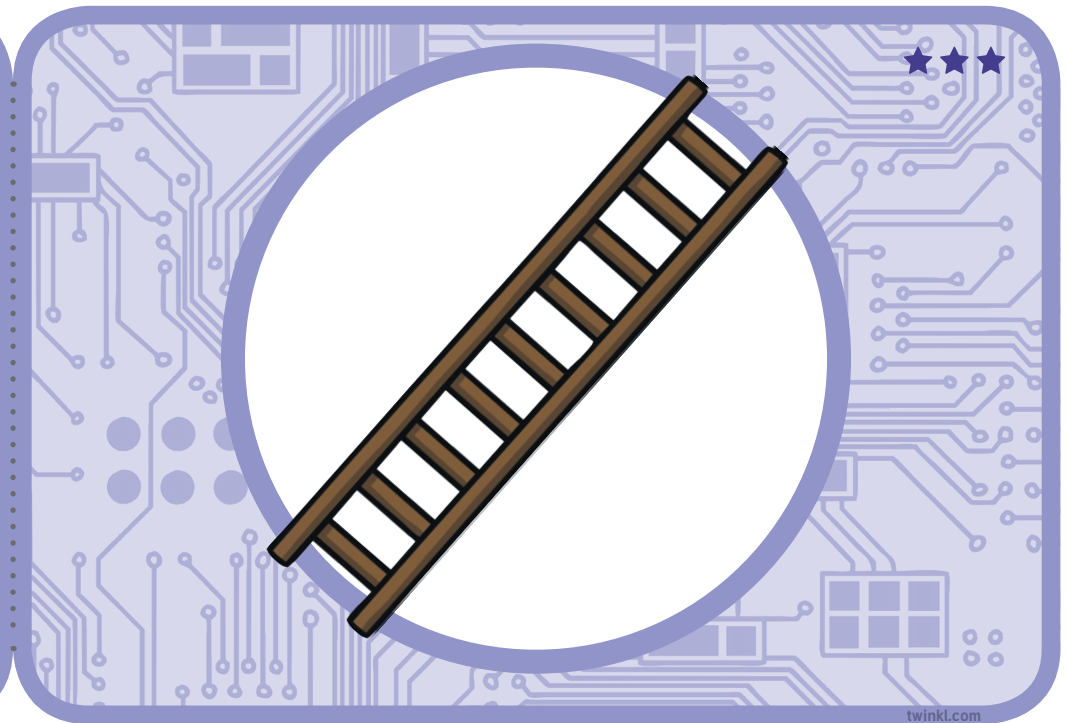

List three things you might leave behind in your digital footprint.

Answers: Name, address, interests, hobbies, places you've been, birthday, friends' or parents' names... anything you do online!

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

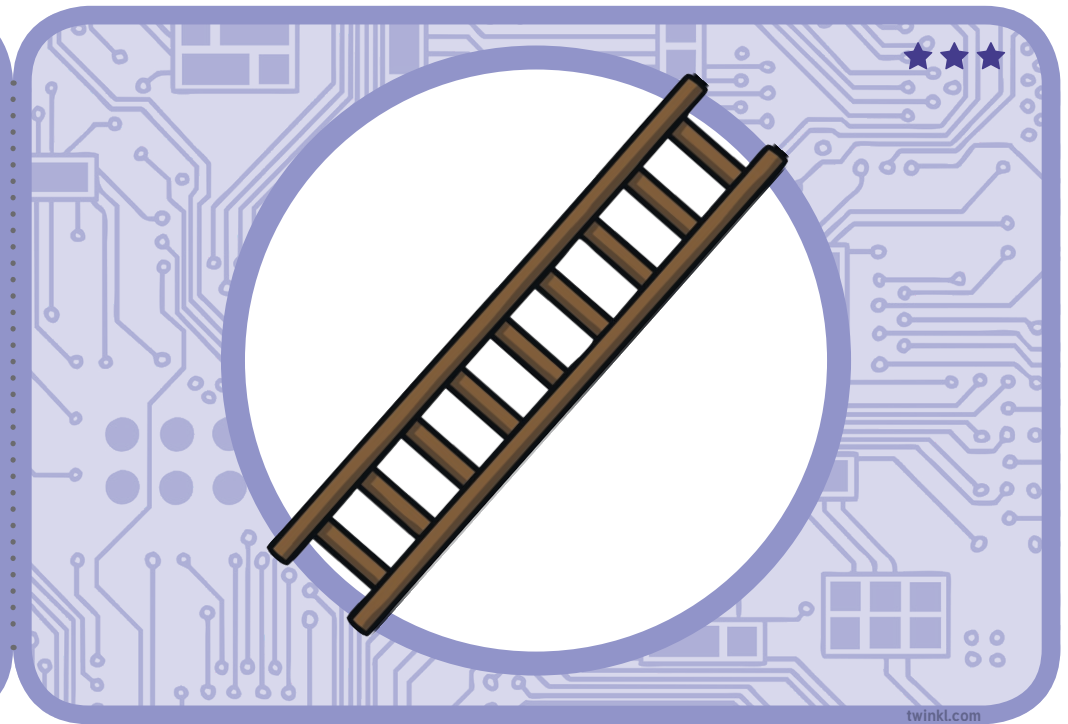

The websites you visit are part of your digital footprint. What else might be included?

Answer: Games consoles, apps on tablets and phones, wifi you have logged into, etc.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

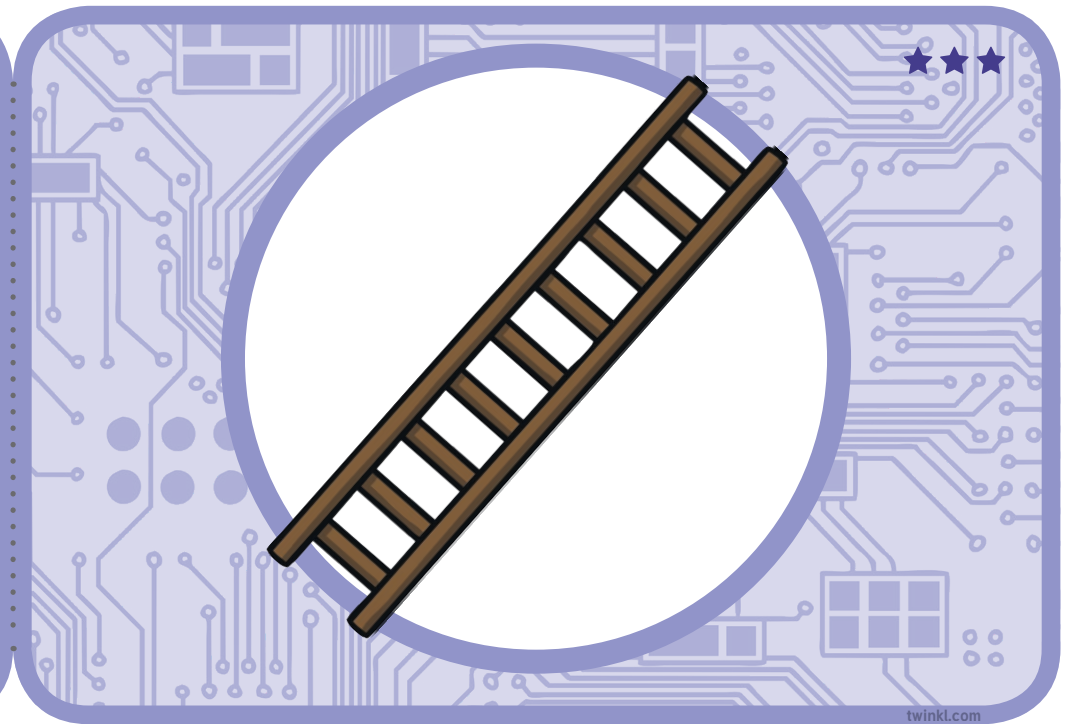

You want to know how to draw a horse. Explain why searching “drawing pictures of horses using felt tips” might not get the best results.

Answer: Too many words!

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

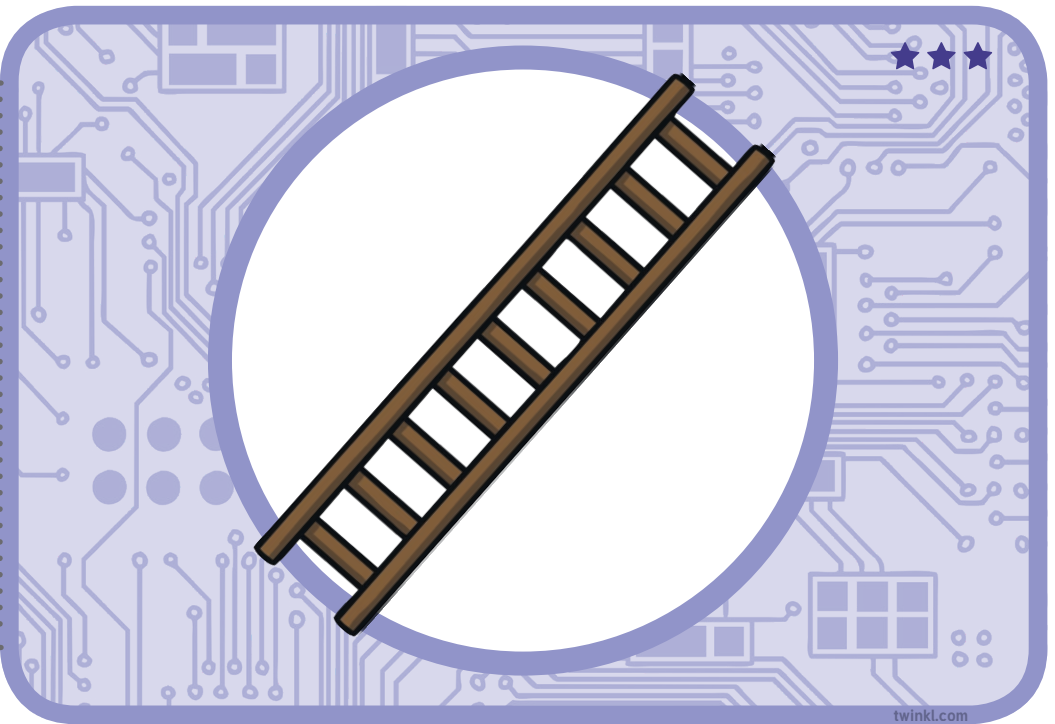

What is a search engine?

Answer: A website where you type in what you want to know.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

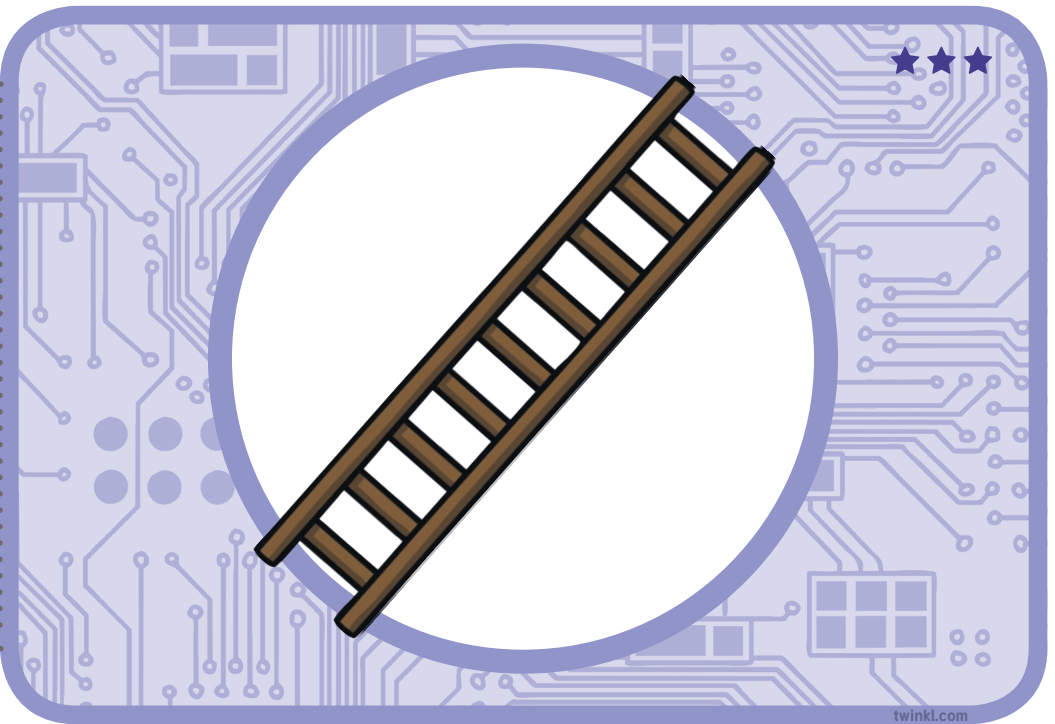

What clues might there be that a website is designed for children to use?

Answer: Easy to understand, lots of pictures, fun games, bright and interesting, it says 'for kids'.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

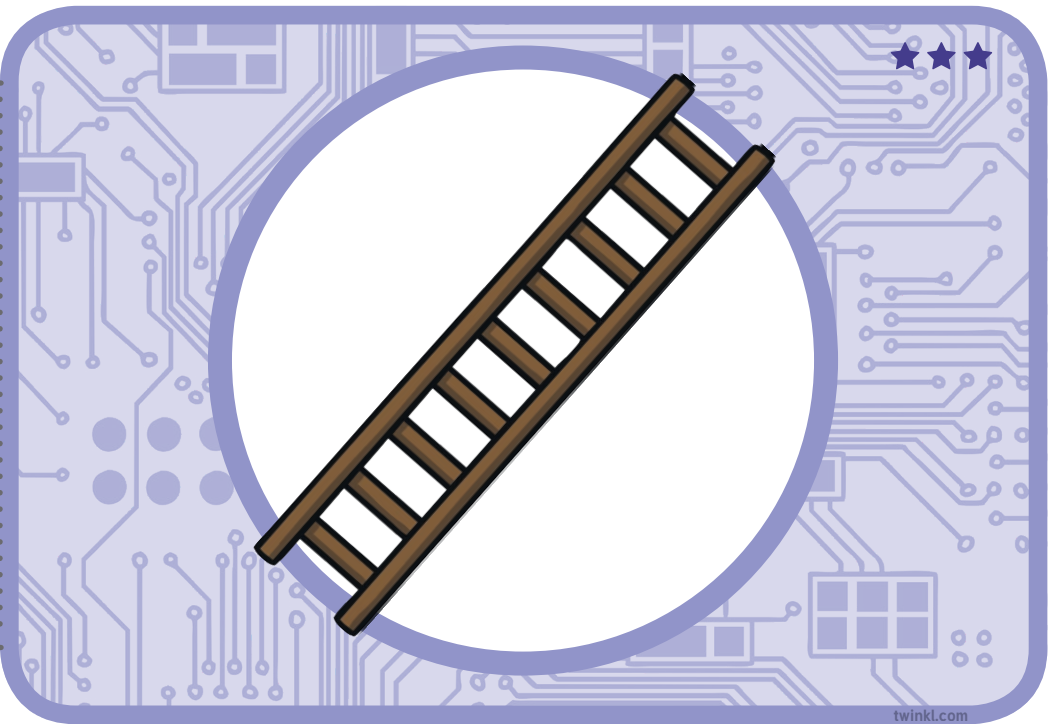

You are asked to create an online profile for a game. Who should create the profile?

Answer: You and an adult, together

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

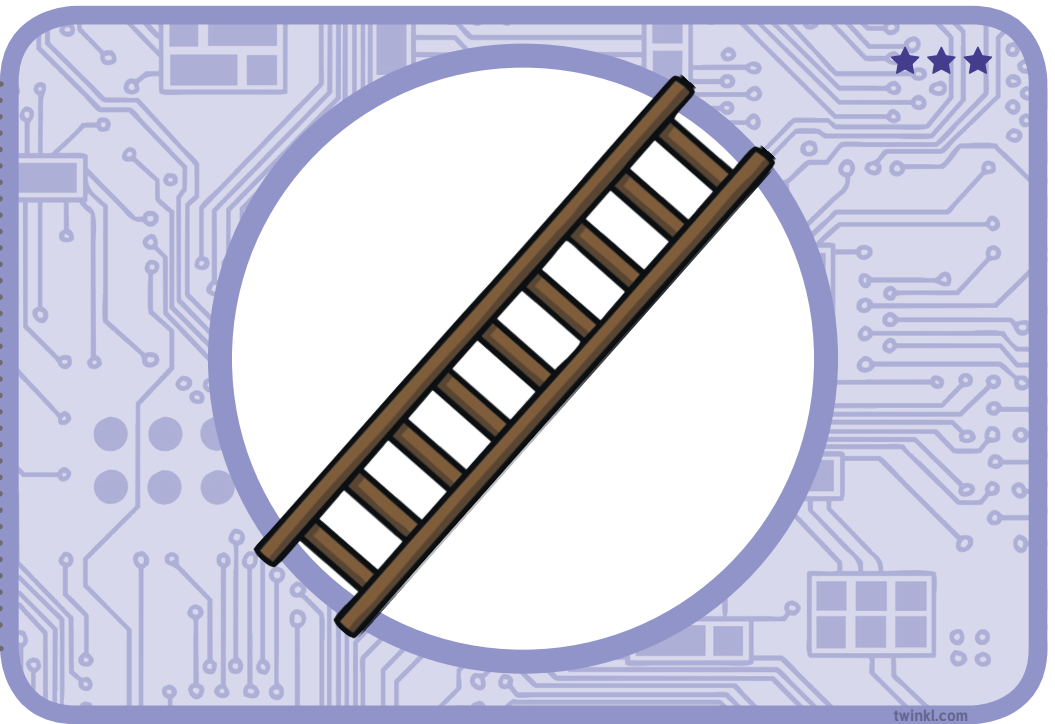

Something has made you uncomfortable online. How could telling an adult help? (You only need to give one reason.)

Answer: They can report it, they can block it, they can talk you about it to make you feel better.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

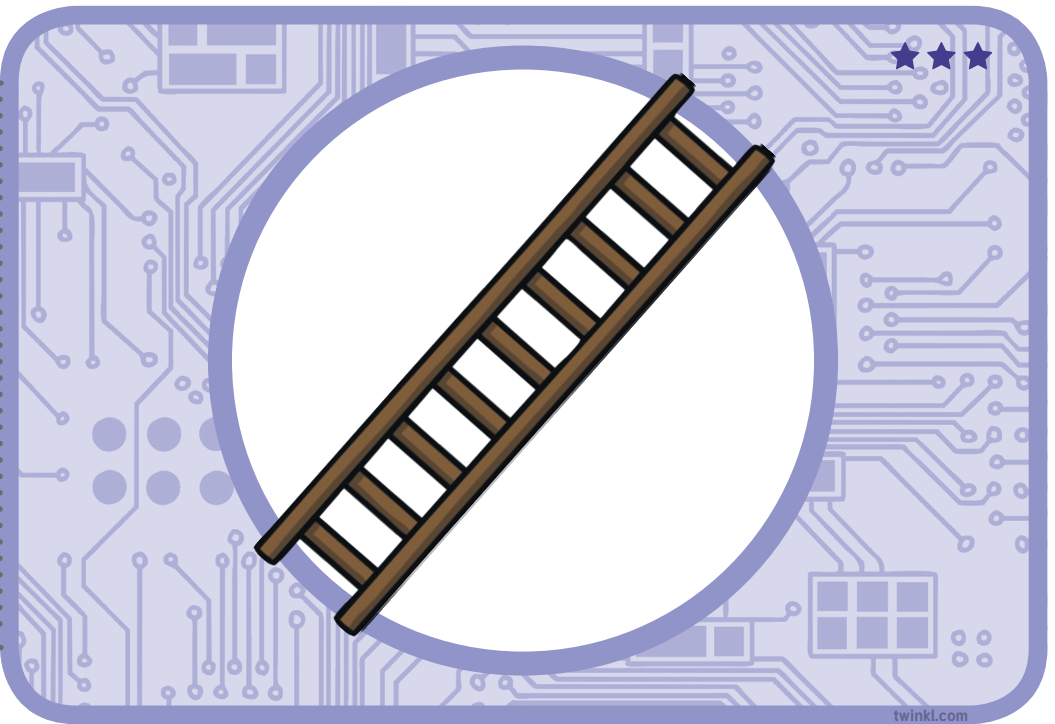

You have blocked someone on a messaging app because they keep being unkind. What else should you do?

Answer: Tell an adult and show them the messages if you need to.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

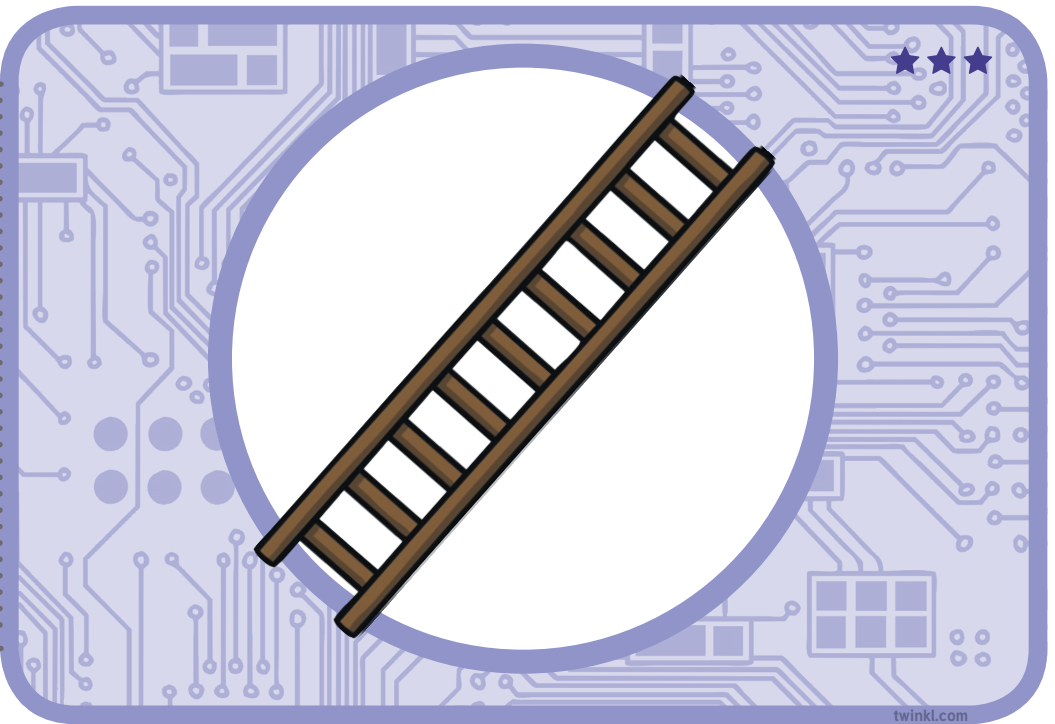

Why is it hard to tell if your friend is being unkind on purpose or just joking on a text message?

Answer: You can't hear his voice or see his face.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

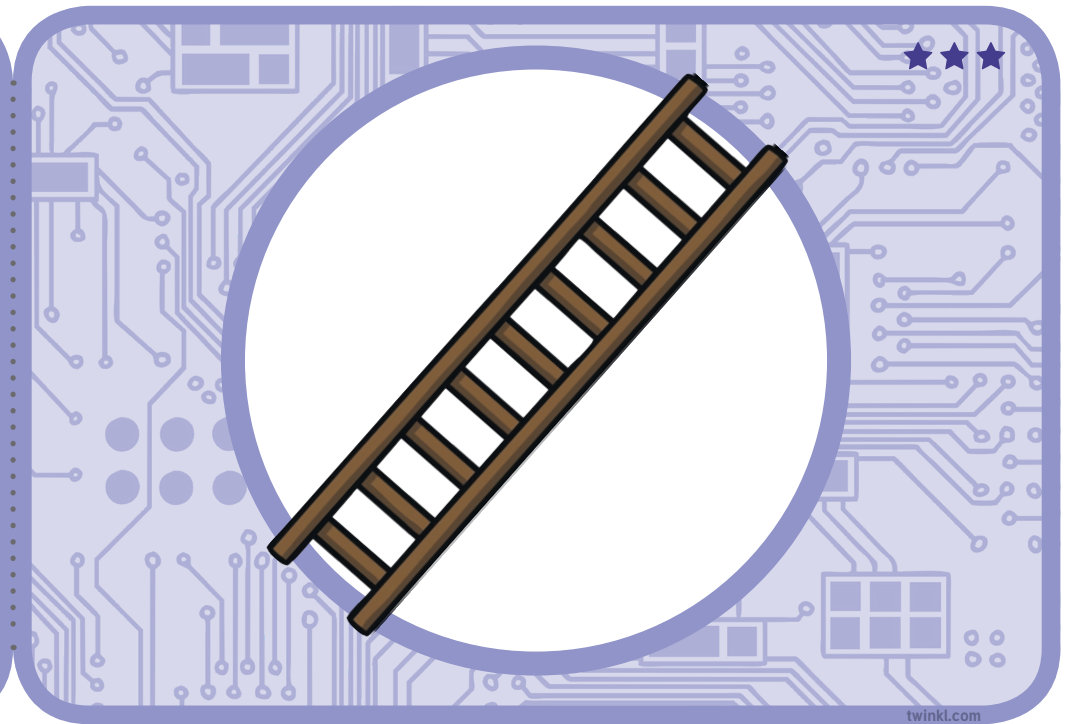

If a website doesn't need a login, could it still be inappropriate for children?

Answer: Yes

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com

Answer this question:

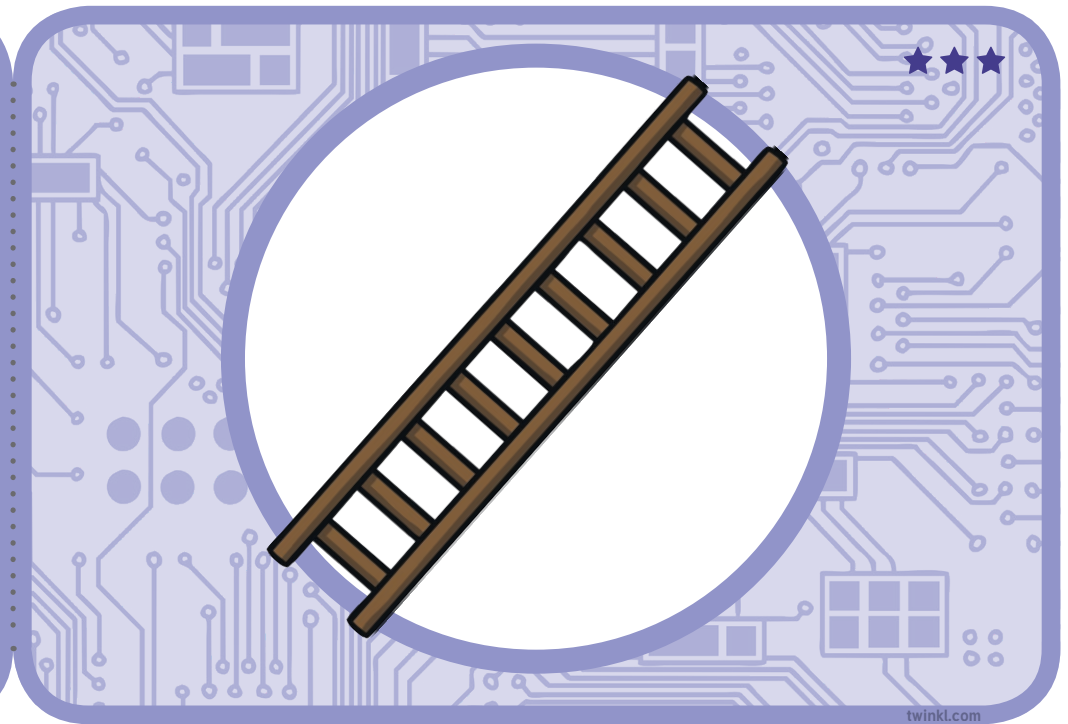

If your friend says that a website is safe and fun to use, but you're not sure, what should you do?

Answer: Ask an adult to check first.

If you got it right, go up the ladder!

If you got it wrong, stay where you are.

twinkl.com

twinkl.com