

Guided Reading

Monday 23rd November 2020

Learning Objective: I can predict what might happen offering an explanation and evidence.

Predicting

Your next chapter is called, 'The Fire in the Studio.'

Write a short prediction for what you think this chapter might be about. Consider what we know already about Charles and how the previous chapter ended.

AMBER

GREEN

BLUE

Consider:

- How did the previous chapter end?
- What makes Charles 'different'?
- What jobs did Charles' parents have?
- What can a studio be used for?

Guided Reading

Tuesday 24th November 2020

Overall Objectives: To model reading aloud with intonation and expression and give children the opportunities to practise these skills.

Before reading, discuss:

- What do we know about Barnaby's friend, Charles?
- What has happened in the story so far?
- Which train station did Barnaby and Charles depart from?

Prediction: today's chapter is called, 'The Fire in the Studio'. What prediction ideas did you write about yesterday?

Reading: Read chapter 15

After reading, discuss:

- What did we learn about Charles in this chapter?
- Were your predictions right?
- Why does Barnaby still want to go home?

JOHN BOYNE

Author of The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas

The Terrible Thing That Happened to Barnaby Brocket

'An uplifting celebration of otherness' Daily Mail

Guided Reading

Wednesday 25th November 2020

Learning Objective: I can express a personal point of view about a text, explaining my opinion in detail.

Chapter 15 - The Fire in the Studio

Charles is surprised to hear that Barnaby is on his way home.
'I know what your parents did to you and yet you still want to go home.'

Is Barnaby doing the right thing in returning home?

Explain your answer in full using evidence from the text to support.

AMBER	GREEN	BLUE
Is Barnaby doing the right thing in returning home? Explain your answer in full using evidence from the text to support.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Why does Barnaby want to return home?</li><li>• Is Barnaby doing the right thing in returning home?</li><li>• Is Charles right to be surprised?</li></ul> Explain each answer in full using evidence from the text to support.

Guided Reading

Thursday 26th November 2020

Overall Objectives: To model reading aloud with intonation and expression and give children the opportunities to practise these skills.

Before reading, discuss:

- Where is Barnaby now?
- What has happened in the story so far?
- What has Barnaby learned from Charles?

Prediction: today's chapter is called, 'The Little Jelly that Caused So Much Trouble'.

What do you think might happen in this chapter?

Reading: Read chapter 16

After reading, discuss:

- What happens to Charles in this chapter?
- Were your predictions right?
- Are there any clues that the man who rescues Barnaby is not to be trusted?

JOHN BOYNE

Author of The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas

The Terrible Thing That Happened to Barnaby Brocket

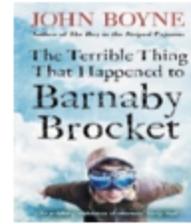

'An uplifting celebration of otherness' Daily Mail

Guided Reading

Friday 27th November 2020

Learning Objective: I can retrieve, record and present information from a text using skimming and scanning.

Chapter 16 - The Little Jelly that Caused so Much Trouble

1. What is the name of the boy who sat next to Barnaby in the stadium. (p.169)
2. How did a jelly sweet cause so much trouble? (p.172)?
3. Who comes to Barnaby's rescue after he floats through the stadium roof? (p.173)
4. Find and copy the quote that tells you the man expects something in return from Barnaby. (p.175)
5. Why does the man say, "Out of my way please My son has fallen ill," on p.178?

