

Tuesday 3rd November

Overall Objective: I can empathise with different character's points of view, offering explanations

Learning Outcome: I can infer what is happening to characters in the story and empathise with their reactions using examples (point, evidence, explanation) to support my answers.

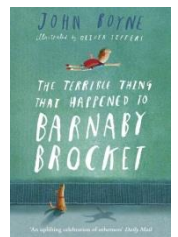

Something to Read at Last

1. Palmira comes to sit with Barnaby in the Barn. Why did she go into the barn?
2. On page 105 Palmira placed her hand on her tummy. Why did she do this?
3. On page 105 Barnaby is saying how fond of Thiago he is. At this point Barnaby could see tears building in Palmira's eyes. Why were tears building in her eyes?
4. On page 111, Palmira gave Barnaby a gift to remember her by. What was the gift and why did Barnaby react to the gift in the way he did?
5. In this chapter, Palmira comes to sit with Barnaby. Explain why she goes to the barn to 'be alone with her thoughts'.

Thursday 5th November

Overall Objective: I can empathise with different character's points of view, offering explanations

Learning Outcome: I can infer what is happening to characters in the story and empathise with their reactions using examples (point, evidence, explanation) to support my answers.

The Worst Jeremy Potts Ever

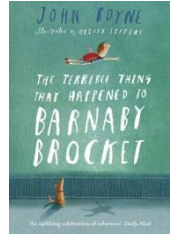

After reading this chapter, can you empathise with Alistair's character?

Consider the fact he wants to be normal and doesn't want to stand out. Think carefully about why he might feel this way after the revelations of this chapter.

Friday 6th November

Overall Objective: To be able to summarise and explain the main ideas of a text.

Learning Outcome: I can summarise the main ideas drawn from across different chapters.

The story so far...

Summarise the main points of the story so far. Think back to what happened at the beginning of the book and Liam's journey to where we have read up to now. You can write this as a paragraph or around eight bullet points.
