Overall Objective :

R.E. - Christmas

Learning Outcomes :

I can understand why the Christmas Story is "Good News" to Christians.

Advent

Before completing today's R.E. task, please read the Advent Powerpoint.

Your Task

Using your knowledge from the Advent Powerpoint, please correctly colour and label the 5 candles of Advent. Remember to write or cut and stick the candles description next to each correct candle.

The Advent wreath has five candles. For each of the four Sundays before Christmas, the priest will light a candle on the wreath.	On the first week, the priest lights a purple candle to symbolise Hope.	On the second week, the priest lights a purple candle to represent Peace.
On the third week, the priest lights a pink candle to symbolise Joy.	On the fourth week, the priest lights a purple candle to represent Love.	Finally, on Christmas Day, the priest lights the final candle in the middle of the wreath. This is a white candle which represents the birth of Jesus Christ.
